

You Want Tenants?
Houses, Flats & Apartments to RENT or Wanted Ads. In To-Morrow's World GO FREE In Monday's Evening World.
A 14-word advt., costing 30c., will get them.

The Evening World
"Circulation Books Open to All."
NEW YORK, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1894.

House & Home Ads.
In To-Morrow's Sunday World FREE
In The Evening World on Monday.
TENANTS for 30c., the price of a 14-word ad.
Nearly 600,000 People Buy
The World Daily.

LAST EDITION.
TO REMODEL
ITS TICKET.
Belief that the LXX. Intends to Strike Off Names of Grace Men.
MAY YET SECURE A UNION.
Conferring Organizations Claim the Right to Select Some of the Candidates.
GRACE MAY GO IT ALONE NOW.

GREAT SPECIAL RACE.
Domino, Henry of Navarre and Clifford to Meet To-Day.
The Question of Supremacy to Be Decided at Morris Park.
Riley Gramann, the Plunging Bookie, on Hand for Big Bets.
Fifth Race-Special: purse $5,000; mile and a furrow.
R. L. Rose's b. c. Clifford, 4, by Bramble-Dutchess (Sims) 122 J. H. & F. F. Keene's br. c. Domino, 5, by Hilar-Mamie Gray Sims 113 Syrus McCalland's ch. c. Henry of Navarre, 3, by Knight of Ellerslie -Moss Rose (A. Clayton or Daggett) 113
The great question of supremacy between Domino, Clifford and Henry of Navarre will be decided at Morris Park this afternoon, and ere the sun sets the title of champion will rest upon one of the three gallant thoroughbreds. For

SENATOR McPHERSON RETIRES
He Has Decided Not to Become a Candidate for Senator.
Continuous Sickness, He Says, Have Broken Down His Health.
TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 6.—Senator John R. McPherson has announced his intention to retire from public life. In a letter to Moses Higelow he states that after full deliberation he has decided that he cannot return to the United States Senate even if his party sees fit to elect him again.
Senator McPherson says that the last four years in the Senate were almost continuous sessions, and that the great strain put upon him broke down his health, and that this is the main reason that he does not desire to return to the Senate. Senator McPherson told a reporter to-day that he had nothing to say on the matter and that his letter to Mr.
Higelow spoke for itself.
The letter is as follows:
COLLEGE PLACE, NEW YORK, Oct. 3, 1894.
Dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your valued favor of the 23d ult., in which you call my attention to the fact that my term in the Senate ends with the fourth day of March next, and also propound some pertinent inquiries in relation to my political plans and purposes of the future. I have received many such letters of late, but have not been able to reach any decision whatever about the matter; but I am now forced, however, to say that I must not be considered a candidate for a fourth term in the Senate. The condition of my health, and the family matters to be considered, and I have decided to take a long leave from the treatment of political and official labor of every kind.
For a period of eighteen years I have served the people of New Jersey in the Senate of the United States faithfully and diligently, and with all my ability, and during that period have taken an active part in all the important legislation enacted by Congress, and I am proud to be able to say that none of the votes there given has been condemned or even unfavorably criticized by the generous people of the State. For the past four years the session have been almost continuous, and by reason of long confinement in the Senate Chamber the strain upon me has been quite as great as I can bear, and I am now unable to assume the responsibility of an active, extensive political struggle which the situation in New Jersey seems to make necessary to insure complete success.
I desire further to say that while I am not anxious to return to the Senate, where I have been honored by my fellow-citizens for a longer consecutive period than has been accorded to any other citizen of the State since the organization of the Federal Government, I am continued to do all in my power for the success of the party, and I shall continue to do so until being able to assist as greatly as I could with my political friends and associates in the contest now pending for the election of my successor. (Signed) J. R. McPHERSON.

LAST EDITION.
COUDERT OR
BEEKMAN?
Each Has Been Mentioned as Gaynor's Successor on the State Ticket.
BOTH ARE GRACE DEMOCRATS.
The State Committee in a Wrangle Over Senator Hill's Harmony Plan.
WANTS TO CONCILIATE SHEPARD.
The Committee Holds a Short Session and Will Meet Again This Afternoon.

Report that He is to Head a Ticket That Will Also Name Goff for Recorder.
The ticket offered last night by the Committee of Seventy in its conference with the anti-Tammany organizations, and a part of which was afterwards endorsed by the Republican Council Convention, will in all probability be remodeled.
The Republicans endorsed W. L. Strong for Mayor, and John W. Goff for Recorder, but refused to accept the Grace Democrats named for the other places, the Grace delegates having bolted from the conference.
For the same reason the LXX. will consider names to be substituted for those presented last night for Recorder. Superior Court Judge, President of the Board of Aldermen and for Corporators. It is expected that the O'Brien Club, Good Government Clubs, the German-American Reform Union and the Independent County Organization will be represented on the new ticket.
John W. Goff indorses the selection of W. L. Strong as the Union candidate for Mayor, and Col. Strong indorses the selection of Mr. Goff for Recorder.
There is still a strong belief among the parties to the conference, except the Grace Democrats, that an acceptation of the union ticket will yet be presented.
It has been suggested, and the suggestion may be acted upon favorably, that as the LXX's candidates for Mayor and Recorder have been accepted, that body should grant the other organizations that indorse Strong and Goff the privilege of naming the rest of the ticket themselves.
As the other parties to the conference are political organizations and votes of them, and as the LXX. has not, it is made that that action a concession is not too much to ask to expect.
On the other hand, some few members of the LXX. say that body will not be forced to issue an address, stating that, owing to the desire of politicians to force certain candidates upon the ticket and to deal between organizations, the Committee is unable to agree upon a ticket and will abandon the attempt.
The positive statement was made to an "Evening World" reporter by one of the members of the Grace-Fairchild organization to-day, that at the Convention to be held in Cooper Union on Tuesday night, a full local ticket would be nominated.
The reporter's informant had seen Mr. Grace after the conference in the United Chalmers Building, last night, and is a good authority.
The ticket will be almost entirely Democratic, John W. Goff being slated for Recorder. At the present time the indications are that William R. Demure will take the Mayoralty nomination.
This latter belief is strengthened by a statement made by Francis M. Scott at the conference last night, and which he told in "The Evening World's" Exclusive. He told the conference that Demure was the only candidate for Mayor who had defeated both the Tammany and Republican candidates for Mayor.
He was speaking of the election of Grace in 1884.
And, he added, "the same man and the same conditions are alive to-day." Conferences will be held to-day by the leaders of the Grace-Fairchild convention and the German reformers.
Henry R. Beekman, one of Mr. Grace's advisers, and whose name was presented to the Committee of Seventy for Judge of the Superior Court, was seen to-day.
"It would not be right," he said, "for me to talk about the proceedings last night, or to say what the New York Democrat will do. It is reasonable, however, to believe that there will be a third local ticket in this city. Conference, of course, are going on all the time, and it is probable that some of them will result in a statement on the subject to-day. Col. Robert Grier Mott believes Mr. Grace, Francis M. Scott and Mr.
Fitzpatrick were absent from their offices this morning. The latter is out of town, and will be back until Monday.
William R. DeMure said this afternoon that the Republican Council Convention will be reconvened again Monday night, and that unless the LXX. decided the interim to what it wanted to do, the Republicans would then go ahead and name a ticket.
The fact that a full ticket in the field right away, he concluded, "and we will not wait longer than Monday." There are a lot of rumors flying around in Tammany circles to-day. One of them is to the effect that if the Grace Democracy will name ex-Comptroller Theodore W. Myers as their candidate for Mayor Tammany will indorse him.

Clifford.
several weeks turfinen all over the country have been making the efforts of racing associations to bring the trio together, and for a time it looked as though the question would remain unsettled, at least for this year.
About a week ago the Morris Park management secured the race, and since then the probable outcome has been the absorbing topic among turfmen and the public generally. Would it be the gallant son of Knight of Ellerslie that would flash first by the winning post or the white and blue spots of the wonderful Keene colt Domino, or would it be Bob Rose's flying four-year-old son of the laurel? All these questions will be answered to-day.
Three or four days after the race had been arranged Henry of Navarre showed signs of going off, and when it became known that it was doubtful if his clever owner, Byron McClelland, would send him to the post there was great disappointment. Yesterday morning, however, the colt was given a trial and he showed that he was again himself.
When the official announcement was made late in the afternoon that the race was an assured thing the public again rejoiced.
In many respects the race is undoubtedly the event of the decade in turf circles. For months there has been a fierce feeling of rivalry among the owners of the horses who have proven themselves to be the best in training by long runs, and the gallant animals go into the starter's hands this afternoon it is estimated that fully 30,000 people, representing all points of the country, will be present.
On public performance the outcome of the race is extremely doubtful, and the least mistake on the part of either of the jockeys may lose the race for his mount. Domino will probably be the favorite. As a three-year-old he has met at Morris Park he won by a head, but critics all agree that "Snapper" Garrigan's handling work on the latter caused his defeat. The next met at Sheepshead Bay a few weeks ago, when they ran their memorable dead heat.
Clifford will in all probability be second choice in the betting. He has met each of his rivals once before this year and was easily defeated by Domino. Just before this race he changed hands, going into J. W. Rogers's stable, and Mr.
Rogers was not used to his charge, which may partially explain his defeat.
That he improved later by the change was demonstrated when he met and defeated Henry of Navarre a short time ago. Since that time he has improved wonderfully.
All three will go to the post as it is human hands can make them, and the winner will at least know he has been racing at Morris Park. The young turfmen will have the leg over Clifford. There is some doubt as to who will win Henry of Navarre, Doggett and Lanny Clayton both having been given out as probable jockeys. The latter was sent out by Feller to sell the claim and obtained twenty cents commission on each box. Feller was held in $400 bail for trial, and the boy was given into the custody of the Gerry Society.

HELD FOR BOYCOTTING.
Three Men Arrested for Interfering with a Saloon-keeper.
Three members of the Ice Brewers' Union, named respectively Dennis Kerwick, twenty-five years old, of 216 East Twenty-eighth street; Richard Duggan, twenty-two years old, of 228 East Twenty-ninth street; and Patrick Gerety, same age, of 230 East Twentieth street, were arrested at the Yorkville Police Court to-day for interfering with Francis Grundy, a saloon-keeper, who Third avenue, who sold the boycotted Budweiser beer.
A representative of the Budweiser Brewing Company informed Justice Mc-Mahon that the prisoners had disregarded a temporary injunction restrain-ing any member of a union from interfering with the sale of the beer.
The injunction may be made permanent by Judge Cullen to-day.
All the prisoners were held for further examination.
ALIBI FOR DAVIS.
Witnesses Swear on Behalf of the Alleged Cincinnati Forger.
Richard J. Davis, the alleged forger, for whose delivery to the authorities in Cincinnati Gov. Flower has issued extradition papers, was before Justice Lawrence, in Supreme Court Chambers, to-day for the second time, on a writ of habeas corpus.
Lawyer McManus had about half a dozen witnesses in court this morning who swore that Davis was in New York on the date he is alleged to have passed a forged check in Cincinnati. The lawyer told Justice Lawrence that he could produce about fifty witnesses who would also swear to the same facts, and Justice Lawrence adjourned the case until next Tuesday.
Sailor Andersen Broke His Arm.
Steamer Venezuela, from Curacao and other ports, arrived to-day, and Capt. Hopkins reported that on Sept. 27, Porto Cabello, near Andersen, a native of Norway, fell overboard and broke his arm. On Sept. 27, at Curacao, James Ferguson, a native of Norway, and a native of Ireland, died of dysentery.
Unknown Man Badly Injured.
An unknown man attempted to step a runaway horse attached to a cab at Twenty-seventh street and Eighth avenue, early this morning, and was knocked down and sustained a fracture of the skull. He was taken to Roosevelt Hospital.

MAD OVER RELIGION. SHE TOOK KNOCKOUT DROPS.
Nurse Lewis Would Have Killed a Three-Days-Old Babe.
Mrs. Herrman, the Mother, Lay Helpless in Her Bed.
The Father Arrived Just in Time to Rescue His Child.
Mrs. Kate Lewis, forty years old, was nursing a woman at 99 Perry street, when she became insane early this morning, and after trying to throw a baby out of the fourth-story window was taken to Bellevue Hospital, a prisoner.
Mrs. George Herrman, the wife of a butcher, living in the Perry street house, sent a week ago for Mrs. Lewis to nurse her. Mrs. Lewis lives somewhere in Thirty-seventh street.
Mrs. Lewis went to Mrs. Herrman's and days ago a child was born to the latter. Nothing peculiar was noticed about Mrs. Lewis until about 10 o'clock last night. When she and Mrs. Herrman were alone, Mrs. Herrman having gone to work in Washington Market, Mrs.
Lewis suddenly began to talk about religious matters, and said there was a devil in her and it must come out. She grew worse as the hours went by. Mrs.
Herrman was too ill to leave her bed, and was too much frightened to call out.
At 2 o'clock this morning, when Mrs.
Lewis reached her room, and was about to open his door, he heard a frightful scream. Rushing into the room he found his wife sitting up in bed, and at the open window Mrs. Lewis was standing holding his new-born baby out of the window.
Herrman seized the woman and dragged her into the room, and put the child in a safe place. Then some of the neighbor sent for Policeman Perkins, and an ambulance was called, and the woman taken away.
Later the twenty-year-old son of Mrs.
Lewis went to the Charles street police station, and told that his mother had been a sufferer from religious mania for some time, but that she had never before been violent.
HIS SISTER WAS DYING.
Young Murray Had a Bondsman Ready, but Couldn't Get Bail.
While District-Attorney Fellows was keeping all the Assistant District-Attorneys in his office to-day at a meeting which he had called for 11 o'clock this morning, a young man was heart-sick from anxiety and deferred hope in a cell in the Tombs. The young man was George Murray, who, with Edward Clarke, was arrested Sept.
28 on a charge of robbery made against them by Henry Rothkoft, of 47 Broadway.
This morning Murray received word that his sister was dying and wanted to see him before she passed away. He communicated with a friend, who agreed to go on his bail, but the friend had until noon to file the bond, as after that time Saturday is a legal holiday, and the bond could not be legally filed.
At the office of the District-Attorney shortly after 11 o'clock, and waited with growing impatience for the word to go. The word came, and he accepted him as a surety for Murray, so that the latter could see his dying sister. The friend waited until the hand on the clock dial crept by the noon hour. He waited even longer, but still none of the Assistant District-Attorneys came from the office of the "Chief," and the attendants dared not disturb the meeting.
When all hope was at an end he went sadly away to break the news to young Murray. The friend declined to give him the word.
Weather Forecast.
The weather forecast for the thirty-six hours ending at 8 P. M. to-morrow is as follows: Fair, stationary temperature, westerly winds.
The following record shows the changes in the temperature during the morning hours, as indicated by the thermometer at Perry's Pharmacy: 8 A. M. 54° 9 A. M. 56° 10 A. M. 58° 11 A. M. 62°
One Killed in a Railroad Wreck.
By Associated Press.
ANNISTON, Ala., Oct. 6.—A Birmingham and Atlantic train wrecked a bridge over the Cotton River yesterday and one passenger was killed and the conductor, fireman, mail clerk and baggage master were hurt.
Drowned in the North River.
Michael Bailey, twenty-one years old, of No.
219 West Twenty-fifth street, while bathing at the foot of West Twentieth street this morning, fell overboard and was drowned.

MRS. SALLADE LOSES.
Justice Steiner Decides in Landlord Scheide's Favor.
The Arlington Officially Pronounced Respectable.
First Setback to the West Twenty-fourth Street Crusade.
Mrs. Mary F. Sallade, who started in a few weeks ago to purify West Twenty-fourth street and rid it of disreputable houses and unsavory characters, received a severe setback to her efforts to-day.
Justice Steiner, of the Sixth Judicial District Court, decided against Mrs. Sallade in her suit to dispossess Proprietor Jacob Scheide from the Arlington Hotel, 54 West Twenty-fourth street, on the ground that it was a resort for disreputable people, to the shame and disgrace of a respectable city.
Justice Steiner's decision legally and officially gives a good character to the hotel for the time being, at least.
Scheide's attorneys in the case are Friend & House, of the Pulitzer Building.
Friend made a big fight for Scheide and the decision was due to his inconsistent work.
The Justice says in his decision that he carefully read the evidence, and is convinced that Mrs. Sallade's allegations are groundless.
He says:
"Upon all the facts and after a careful examination of the evidence about the
hotel for the time being, at least."
Scheide's attorneys in the case are
Friend & House, of the Pulitzer Building.
Friend made a big fight for Scheide and
the decision was due to his in-
consistent work.
The Justice says in his decision that
he carefully read the evidence, and is
convinced that Mrs. Sallade's allegations are groundless.
He says:
"Upon all the facts and after a careful examination of the evidence about the
hotel for the time being, at least."
Scheide's attorneys in the case are
Friend & House, of the Pulitzer Building.
Friend made a big fight for Scheide and
the decision was due to his in-
consistent work.
SEEKS AN INHERITANCE.
But Mrs. Rubinstein Is Dejected at Ellis Island as a Pauper.
Glitte Breine Rubinstein, forty-seven, widow of Pesach Rubinstein, who died in prison Feb. 14, 1874, a day before he was to have been hanged for the murder of his cousin, Sarah Alexander, is at Ellis Island, detained as a pauper.
Mrs. Rubinstein came from Jerusalem in quest of an alleged bequest of several thousand dollars (the amount with interest is now $2,800) made by Pesach to her, by a will now said to be in the hands of the Kings County Surrogate.
The woman says that Leibel Finkelstein, her husband's brother, who was her bequest. She was dissuaded from coming here sooner by her father-in-law, referred to as "Uncle," who wrote her, she says, that as soon as she landed here the authorities would visit her husband's crime upon her also.
Unless somebody gives $500 bail, guaranteeing that Mrs. Rubinstein, her sister, Basche Ragolski, who has accompanied her, will not become a burden upon the public, they will be sent back within a few days.
TWO HELD FOR SHOPLIFTING.
Caught Pocketing Jewelry in Bloomington's Store.
Two alleged professional shoplifters were captured by Special Officer footracer in Bloomington's dry goods store last evening. They were Mary McLaughlin, twenty-five years old, and Bella Pinkelstein, fifty-two years old, both of 20 East Forty-third street.
Detectives saw them pocket two gold brooches, a silver buckle and several pairs of sleeve buttons, beside some small trinkets, which were found on them when searched.
In the Pinkelstein woman's possession the detective also found twenty-nine paw tickets, representing jewelry and clothing. They were held for trial.
Actor Ward Fined $3.
Charles H. Ward, of 12 West Twenty-eighth street, the young actor and musical publicist, was fined $3 this morning in Jefferson Market Police Court. He was standing on the corner of Twenty-sixth street and Sixth avenue shortly before 12 o'clock last night talking to Gus Davis, the song writer. Roundabout Taylor ordered them to move on and Mr. Ward declined to do so. He was then taken into custody.

There Is No Reason
NEARLY
500,000
PEOPLE
Buy The World
EVERY
Day.
Why Houses, Rooms, or Flats A Should Be Vacant.
14 Word
HOUSE and
HOME Advt.
Will Cost Only
30 CENTS.
The Merest
Trifle.
Try a World • Advt.

LAWYER LANG ARRAIGNED.
Held in $500 for Trial for Alleged Pension Frauds.
Henry Lang, an attorney, of this city, who made a specialty of prosecuting United States pension claims, was arrested to-day. Feller, manufacturer tenement at the above address. The charge against him was selling cigars
to a minor.
Last Thursday afternoon the Society agent arrested Harry Samuel, fourteen years old, of 27 Essex street, and the boy was selling cigars from a box on Chatham square. He claimed that he was sent out by Feller to sell the cigars
and obtained twenty cents commission
on each box. Feller was held in $400
bail for trial, and the boy was given
into the custody of the Gerry Society.
SOLD CIGARS TO MINORS.
A Tenement-House Manufacturer Held for Trial.
Agent Monstake, of the Gerry Society, arrested Isaac Feller, of 18 Delancy street to-day. Feller, manufacturer tenement at the above address. The
charge against him was selling cigars
to a minor.
Last Thursday afternoon the Society
agent arrested Harry Samuel, fourteen
years old, of 27 Essex street, and the boy
was selling cigars from a box on Chatham square. He claimed that he
was sent out by Feller to sell the cigars
and obtained twenty cents commission
on each box. Feller was held in $400
bail for trial, and the boy was given
into the custody of the Gerry Society.
U. OF. P. NOT TO PLAY HERE.
The Princeton "Penny" Game Will Be Held in College Grounds.
(By Associated Press.)
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6.—It is stated on the best of authority that the University of Pennsylvania-Princeton football game will not be played in New York City.
President Munn, of Princeton, favors the home grounds, and the game will be played in Princeton, unless something should occur to prevent it. In the lat-test in Kansas City on a charge preferred before Commissioner Alexander by Pension Inspector Elliott of having illegally charged Catherine Roeth $2 more than the Pension laws allowed.
Commissioner Alexander fixed the ball at $500.
PRIZE-FIGHTERS MUST LEAVE
Cincinnati's Police Chief Wants No Mixed-Ale Pugilists Around.
(By Associated Press.)
CINCINNATI, Oct. 6.—Prize-fighters have been adjudged a nuisance by Chief of Police Detsch, and he will give orders to-day to every detective and policeman on the force to clear the city of this class. His wrath is directed particularly against the cheap fighters who loaf about public resorts waiting for a friendly treat and patronizing free-lunch places.
The Chief will make up a list of the pugilists in Cincinnati who will be told to leave the city or accept the painful alternative of finding work. Any of the fighters who are so notified will be arrested if they disregard the order.

There Is No Reason
NEARLY
500,000
PEOPLE
Buy The World
EVERY
Day.
Why Houses, Rooms, or Flats A Should Be Vacant.
14 Word
HOUSE and
HOME Advt.
Will Cost Only
30 CENTS.
The Merest
Trifle.
Try a World • Advt.

HOUSE and HOME Ads.
In To-Morrow's World
—GO—
FREE
In Monday's
Evening
World.
Why Houses, Rooms, or Flats A Should Be Vacant.
14 Word
HOUSE and
HOME Advt.
Will Cost Only
30 CENTS.
The Merest
Trifle.
Try a World • Advt.

HOUSE and HOME Ads.
In To-Morrow's World
—GO—
FREE
In Monday's
Evening
World.
Why Houses, Rooms, or Flats A Should Be Vacant.
14 Word
HOUSE and
HOME Advt.
Will Cost Only
30 CENTS.
The Merest
Trifle.
Try a World • Advt.